

Do Not Waste

This month's topic is wasting. We started to take action as soon as possible. First we prepared taboo cards about the most crucial words and we played and had fun. Then we created some posters and hung them on the school walls, classrooms and the toilets. We tried to draw other students' attention to not wasting the Earth's limited sources.

